

9th Annual Financial Literacy Contest

Attention 7th through 12th Grade Students and Teachers!

To help further financial literacy education among 7-12th grade students in the Commonwealth, Harrisburg University of Science and Technology, in partnership with Pennsylvania Department of the Auditor General, is conducting a Commonwealth-wide Financial Literacy Essay contest, entitled...

“WHAT DOES FINANCIAL LITERACY MEAN TO ME?”

This contest is for any student in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in grades 7-12.

Submissions can include a 30-second TikTok video, short essay or poem on what financial literacy means to you. First prize will be $1500; second prize is $1000; third prize is $750.

Make sure to use #BeMoneySmart when posting your video to TikTok!

SUBMISSION DEADLINE | FEBRUARY 15, 2022

Send submissions to:

Steven Infanti

Financial Literacy Contest Coordinator

Harrisburg University of Science and Technology

326 Market Street, Harrisburg, PA 17101

Connect@HarrisburgU.edu

www.HarrisburgU.edu/HUFinancialLiteracy

Winners will be announced in April 2022 in time for Financial Literacy Month in Pennsylvania.

